VOLUME CVL--NO. 255.

ALEXANDRIA, VA., FRIDAY EVENING, OCTOBER 27, 1905.

PRICE 2 CENTS.

Who would exchange the merry noise of children at play, with the childless home where the clock tick can be heard hour after hour in the dull evening? But here are a great many who would like to people the silent home with the children of Fate is often in this case only another word for ignorance. Many a glad mother dates her happiness from the day she first began the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It often happens that with the cure of female weakness and the establishing of the delicate womanly organs in sound health, the way is opened for the joy of motherhood. "Favorite Prescription" is a specific for the chronic ailments peculiar to women. It cures them perfectly and permanently.

No other medicine can do for women so much as "Favorite Prescription." Do not therefore let any other medicine be palmed off on you as "just as good." "Favorite Prescription" contains no alcohol, opium, cocaine or other narcotic. It is strictly a temperance medicine.

"I can truly say your medicine is a friend of mine," writes Mrs. Arthur Bratt, of Amherstburg, Ontario, Canada. "I am mother of four children and suffered greatly at times of birth of first three. When three months along with the last one I began to think of trying some medicine to ease those terrible pains, and asked our doctor whether there was anything he could give me to lessen labor pains. He said there was nothing that could help me. I then thought I would write to Dr. Pierce. He advised me to take his Favorite Prescription. I started to take it at fourth month. I was very weak, had heart trouble and would faint away two or three times a day. Our doctor could not help me and life was a drag. I would often say, oh, if I could only die in one of these spells; but I took five bottles of Favorite Prescription, and felt better every day. Got along well at the time of delivery. I had heard of painless childbirth, and I thought it must be a good medicine that would help those pains, but I know now, myself, that it is not without plain enough. Your Favorite Prescription is the best medicine as we mothers know. I advise my friends to try it. Baby is now four months old and is a strong healthy boy."

APPEARING OLD

Acts as a Bar to Profitable Employment.

You cannot afford to grow old. In these days of strenuous competition it is necessary to maintain, as long as possible, your youthful appearance. It is impossible to do this without retaining a luxuriant growth of hair.

The presence of Dandruff indicates the presence of a burrowing germ within the scalp, and it is the root of the hair until it causes total baldness. Newbro's Herpicide is the only known destroyer of dandruff, and it is as effective, as it is delightful to use.

Herpicide makes an elegant hair dressing as well as Dandruff cure. Accept no substitutes; there is none. Sold by leading druggists. Send 5c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

There is no other relief and cure known to medical science for the pains of rheumatism, neuralgia, indigestion, earache, headache, toothache, and for injuries such as bruises, sprains, cuts and burns, etc., so certain and safe in results as Hamlin's Wizard Oil. Murdered in Revenge.

The Wilkesbarre, Pa., police now believe that the murder of the Italian Black Hand Society leader, known as Luciano Parrenno, at Brownstown, on Sunday morning, was a result of the vengeance of friends of Benedetto Modina, the victim of the celebrated barrel murder mystery in New York, in 1903. They learned that the name of Sunday's victim is really Tomaso Potto, or El Toro Potto ("Potto the Bull"), who was the chief of the men arrested in New York for the barrel murder. Potto had a knife and the pawn ticket for a watch owned by the victim when arrested, but the police were unable to convict him, and after being in custody thirteen months he was released. He left New York immediately, fearing, the police believe, the vengeance of Modina's friends, and it now develops that he came to the Wilkesbarre region, and changed his name to Parrenno, and settled at Brownstown, where he became the leader of the Black Hand in that city, and was soon known as a bad man. Guiseppe Depirino, brother-in-law of Modina, who was imprisoned at the time of the murder, and swore to be revenged on the murderers, was released from jail two weeks ago. The police are now trying to learn if there is any connection between his release and the murder of Sunday morning.

Remarkable Mirage.

On the night of August 15, when the whaling bark Gayhead was cruising about 75 miles west of Fribyloff Island, in Bering Sea, Mate Passa and the men on deck were thunderstruck by the appearance of a great city immediately ahead.

There was the shore line, and rising above it were thousands of electric lights twinkling along a hundred streets. Here and there, apparently at prominent corners, were larger lights, and along the shores were a myriad of lights showing at the wharves.

But the mate and his men knew that this must be a mirage and that for hundreds of miles beyond where these lights flared out was only an expanse of water. The mate called Captain Fisher, and he looked upon the scene and was bewildered. There was no accounting for the wonderful sight. This city seemed as real as San Francisco seems to a vessel anchored in the channel near Goat Island.

When daylight came the spectacle faded away, and in all directions was only the heaving bosom of the sea, with no land in sight and no great city within thousands of miles.

Quality of Kansas Whisky.

The quality of the whisky sold in Kansas through the joints and by traveling bootleggers was revealed Monday at Fredonia when, under the order of Gov. Hoch, 513 cases and 6,000 bottles of whisky were publicly destroyed in the court house square while a band played temperance melodies. The contents of the bottles were poured into the sewers and yesterday the people of Neodesha, a few miles below, complained of the contamination of the water by this liquor which poured down Fall river and into Neodesha's service pipes. When the thousands of bottles were broken a carload of them were thrown in a heap in the court house yard. What beer and whisky remained in the fragments of bottles trickled through the grass across the court yard, making a path several feet wide. On Tuesday night this path was marked by dead grass, which had been green the day before. A dispatch from Fredonia says the grass is dry enough to burn. This furnishes striking testimony of the quality of liquors now being sold in Kansas.

Improvements at the Capitol.

When the senators and representatives return to Washington to attend the approaching session of Congress they will be astonished at the transformation at the Capitol. All the flues have been equipped with exhaust fans and other apparatus to stop the smoke from the fireplaces going the wrong way. The entire upper portion of the rotunda has been cleaned and painted, and the "steamboat paint" of the sandstone walls, has been completely scraped away, revealing the beautiful red brown color and stratification of the walls. The rotunda now reminds one of the interior of a Greek temple. The color of the walls, the girding or stratification of the stone harmonizes with the historical paintings above, while in place of the old gas jets there has been installed 1,900 incandescent lights.

Old and obsolete plumbing has been replaced with an up-to-date system, and the whole building has received a thorough washing and scrubbing from top to bottom.

Could Not Be Better.

The uniform success of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy has won for it a wide reputation and many people throughout the country will agree with Mr. Chas. W. Mattison, of Milford, Va., who says: "It works like magic, and is the best preparation I know of. It couldn't be any better." He had a serious attack of dysentery and was advised to try a bottle of this remedy, which he did, with the result that immediate relief was obtained. For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

MOTHERHOOD

Actual Sterility in Women Is Very Rare—Healthy Mothers and Children Make Happy Homes.

Many women long for a child to bless their homes, but because of some debility or displacement of the female organs they are barren. Preparation for healthy maternity is accomplished by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound more successfully than by any other medicine, because it gives tone and strength to the entire female organism, curing all displacements, ulceration and inflammation.

A woman who is in good physical condition transmits to her children the blessings of a good constitution. Is not that an incentive to prepare for a healthy maternity?

If expectant mothers would fortify themselves with Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which for thirty years has sustained thousands of women in this condition, there would be a great decrease in miscarriages, in suffering, and in disappointments at birth.

The following letters to Mrs. Pinkham demonstrate the power of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in such cases.

Mrs. L. C. Glover, Vice-President of Milwaukee Business Woman's Association, of 614 Grove Street, Milwaukee, Wis., writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—I was married for several years and no children blessed our home. The doctor said I had a complication of female troubles and I could not have any children unless I could be cured. For months I took his medicines, trying in vain for a cure, but at last my husband became disgusted and suggested that I try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

For Divorce at 17 from 76. Not in years has McKeesport, Pa., had such a sensation as was caused by the announcement Wednesday evening that the child wife of Dr. A. M. Grubbs, the town's leading practitioner and church member, had filed preliminary papers in divorce. On last Friday Dr. Grubbs, who is 76 years of age, eloped to Youngstown, O., with pretty Myrtle Beattie, aged 17 years. The child wife has evidently repented of her hasty marriage to a man more than four times her age, and Wednesday afternoon, with her parents, she went to the office of Alderman B. L. Cousin and arranged for filing her first papers in divorce. The little wife alleges she did not know the importance of the step she was taking in eloping to get married, and asks to be released from her marriage vows. "He's too old, anyway. I don't want to live with him. I don't want to be married any more," cried the child wife as she left the Alderman's office. Dr. Grubbs, when told of his wife's action, said he probably would not contest her action for divorce.

A Dareddevil Ride often ends in a sad accident. To heal accidental injuries, use Bucklen's Arnica ointment. "A deep wound in my foot, from an accident," writes Theodore Schuele, of Columbus, O., "caused me great pain. Physicians were helpless, but Bucklen's Arnica Salve quickly healed it." Soothes and heals burns like magic. 25c at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists.

FRIDAY EVENING, OCT. 27, 1906.

HE WHO laughs last laughs best. A year ago Mr. Thomas W. Lawson, of Boston, made the charge that the three big life insurance companies were in the hands of grafters. The insurance companies replied that Mr. Lawson was a liar. Now Mr. Lawson has published an article which shows that he knew what he was talking about when he made his charges. He says:

A year ago I called the attention of the world to the fact that the men who managed and controlled the "Big Three" life insurance companies—New York, Mutual and Equitable—were grafters—men, low grafters—grafters who exploited themselves with horses, yachts, palaces and other flub-dubbies by using the money collected by false pretences from millions of Americans, from the laborer, the widow and the orphan. This was over a year ago. I was all alone in making these accusations. I was all alone when "the world" howled for my scalp for doing this monumental wrong to these monumentally good men. As the wind is tempered to the shorn lamb, so my scalp is adjusted to the world's howl. The other day on the witness stand in the investigation by the New York legislative committee the grafters of the New York, Mutual and Equitable under oath confessed to acts so much lower, so much meaner than any I had accused them of, that the world is now howling my praises as a conservative. One of those who confessed was Vice-President Grannis, of the Mutual.

MORE than two million women, representing the leading women's organizations of the United States, it is said, have adopted a memorial calling for the unseating of United States Senator Reed Smoot. This was announced yesterday by the executive committee of the National Congress of Mothers, which met in Philadelphia. This memorial will be presented when Congress convenes. Smoot, the women declare, controls the vote of eight other Senators, and fearing that his power will increase, they ask that action be taken at the convening of Congress. The reason the women give for ousting the Mormon Senator is the very one which will secure the retention of his seat. The Republicans want these votes and will not lose them if they can help it. It is well, however, for Mr. Smoot that he is not a democrat, or he would surely be treated as was Congressman Roberts.

A CORPS of expert bank examiners is now at work trying to get at the bottom of the facts in the failure of the looted Enterprise National Bank, of Allegheny, Pa. While all eyes have been turned toward the dead cashier and the State treasury deposit, the judicial department of the United States has set to work to learn wherein the national banking department has been remiss. It has been made clear by all the authorities connected with the bank that Cashier Clark had been carrying on his peculations for the past two years, at least. How did he do it without the bank examiner making the discovery? That is the question the Department of Justice of the United States will ascertain for the Comptroller of the Currency. Do even national bank examiners examine? That is the pertinent and timely question Comptroller Ridgely is facing.

SENATOR GORMAN yesterday evening made a great speech at Elliptic City, Md., in defense of the proposed P. C. amendment to the constitution of his State. He gave the best of reasons why the amendment should be adopted and in doing so recounted the troubles of the southern people, and what they were obliged to resort to throw off the yoke put upon them by the suffrage of the ignorant and vicious class of negroes. Why any white man, especially any southern white man, should oppose the amendment is hard to understand, but still there are a number of them, including some Virginians, who are making Maryland their adopted home.

CONDITIONS in Russia are still serious. The strikes and revolutionary movements are causing famine and panic in the large cities. The police of St. Petersburg are frightened and are seeking release from duty. The autocratic government seems doomed, and it is again reported that the Czar will grant a constitution. It is said that 1,000,000 men are on strike, and the spirit of anarchy increases with idleness. Bloody conflicts have occurred between soldiers and strikers in several places. There were no serious disorders in St. Petersburg last night from the fact that many soldiers with guns loaded with ball cartridges virtually stood guard over the disorderly elements.

THE CASE of two grocers in Philadelphia, local managers for Swift & Co., charged with furnishing impure food to the League Island navy yard, came up yesterday before Judge McMichael in the Criminal Court. They were charged with supplying oleomargarine to the navy yard as a substitute for butter. They pleaded guilty and were fined $250 and costs and sentenced to 60 days in the county prison. The sentence was perfectly just and proper, but the principals should have been held equally as were the agents.

A DISPATCH from Havana, published in yesterday's Gazette, stated that General Jose Miguel Gomez, former governor of Santa Clara province, until recently a candidate for the presidency of Cuba, and who is now in the United States, is buying 6,000 rifles in this country for the purpose of organizing a revolution in Cuba. Gen. Gomez goes on the principle that if he can't catch the voters he can shoot them.

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.] Washington, D. C., Oct. 27. In order that he may discuss intelligently in his annual report to Congress the triumphs and troubles of the Panama Canal Commission, Secretary of War Taft will start this evening for a visit on the isthmus. He will proceed by steamer to Hampton Roads, where tomorrow morning he will board the cruiser Columbia for Colon. He will be accompanied by Col. Clarence Edwards, chief of the Bureau of Insular Affairs, and several others. While on the isthmus Secretary Taft will make an inspection of the whole route, the buildings, machinery, etc., and will inquire particularly into the condition of the employees. It is expected also that he will in a general way investigate the question of the proper type of the canal—whether lock or sea-level—so that he may be able to pass intelligently upon the forthcoming recommendations of the board of consulting engineers.

Several important murder cases of more than ordinary public interest will occupy the attention of the Supreme Court of the United States at the present term. Two of them grow out of the assassination of Governor Goebel, of Kentucky. Jim Howard, who is supposed to have fired the fatal shot, and who has thrice been convicted, brings up his case on writ of error, appealing from the life sentence of the court below. Motion to advance the case on the calendar has been denied, but it will probably be reached some time in December. A motion to advance the case of Caleb Powers will be made next week. Powers, who is declared to have been the arch-conspirator in the Goebel case, has also been convicted three times, and is now under sentence of death. The third case of interest is that of Anna Valentia, an Italian woman who murdered Rosa Salza near Hackensack, N. J., and who is under sentence of death. Another murder case of national notoriety is that of Mary Mabel Rogers, of Vermont, who is also under sentence of death and whose appeal as in the Valentia case, is from the order setting her prayer for a writ of habeas corpus.

President Roosevelt's party minus the President returned to Washington at 8 p. m. from Memphis Tenn., where they left the Executive Wednesday evening. The homeward journey was uneventful. As the members of the party were bidding the President farewell, one of them expressed the hope that he would not be sea-sick on his homeward voyage. Will you please tell me he exclaimed, when I have ever been on a ship and was not sea-sick? But, Loeb, there will be others just as bad off as I am, and when I see him at his work, no matter how sick I am myself, I shall offer him some pork and bean soup kraut." Stenographer M. C. Latta, of the White House, returns to Washington on the sick list. He dates his ailment to the "marine fever" that the people of St. Augustine gave the Presidential party last Saturday night. Several other members of the party suffered dire disturbances in their digestive tract after that meal, but no one was obliged to take to his bed except Latta. Dr. Rixey said that Mr. Latta had a very narrow escape from ptomaine poisoning.

Up to 10:30 this morning no official information had been received at the White House regarding the accident to the lighthouse tender conveying the President down the Mississippi from New Orleans. Col. Lockwood, of the Lighthouse Board, received at 11:50 o'clock the following telegram from Commander Sears, in command of the Magnolia, in regard to the accident: "The Magnolia was struck on the foredeck about 11 p. m. by the steamer Esparta. No one was injured and the vessel was grounded at Sixty Mile Point. The President and his party were taken on board the lighter try and will arrive at the West Virginia on time. I believe the Magnolia can be repaired and that she can proceed without assistance." The telegram was dated at Nairn.

Delegates to the second annual convention of the fourth class postmasters of the United States spent nearly the entire day in sight-seeing. At 3:30 o'clock Postmaster General Cortelyou received the delegates in his office and made a short address to them.

The State Department today received from the United States legation to Norway and Sweden a dispatch announcing the receipt of a telegram from Stockholm stating that King Oscar yesterday afternoon upon receipt of the news that the Swedish Diet had given its consent to the recognition of Norway as entirely separate from Sweden had renounced for himself and his house the crown of Norway. The legation was instructed to convey this news to the United States with the promise that later a circular note will be sent by Sweden to all the powers making the announcement.

Secretary of War Taft has transmitted to the Treasury Department his estimates of the appropriations that will be required for the War Department for the fiscal year 1907. These estimates aggregate $104,988,397.75, being $9,717,922.52 less than the total appropriations made by Congress for the use of the War Department for the current fiscal year ending June 30, 1906.

Miss Alice Roosevelt who spent the night at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Douglas Robinson, in New York, occupied a drawing room in a parlor car of train No. 51, which started from Jersey City for Washington this morning. Before boarding the train Miss Roosevelt made a positive denial of the reports that she is engaged to Congressman Nicholas Longworth, of Ohio.

The historic old mansion of the late Mrs. Harriet Lane Johnston, in Washington, was sold yesterday to Mrs. Ryan, wife of Thomas F. Ryan, the New York financier and railroad man. Mrs. Ryan bought the property to use it as a winter home in Washington. The price paid was $60,000.

Miss Nannie Kemper and Mr. T. M. Houchens were married in Warrenton yesterday evening. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Boston.

News of the Day.

Former President Cleveland has written a letter strongly endorsing the candidacy of McCallan for mayor of New York.

"Methodism in Europe" was the subject yesterday of a report to the College of Bishops of the Methodist Episcopal Church, in semi-annual session in Washington.

The E. H. Harriman special, with Miss Alice Roosevelt aboard, reached New York last night. Miss Roosevelt was driven to the home of her aunt, Mrs. Douglas Robinson.

President Loubet left Madrid for Lisbon late yesterday. The postponed bull-fight took place prior to his departure. The President did not desire to attend it, but, owing to the national character of the event, he went to it with King Alfonso, witnessed the brilliant cavalcade, and departed after the first bull had been killed.

John Findlay Wallace, whose resignation as chief engineer of the Panama canal caused a decided sensation in administration circles, is telling why he quit. While he does not emphasize the fact, he makes it very plain that red tape at Washington handicapped him to such an extent that he did not feel justified in going ahead with his work.

The old homestead of the late Admiral English, in Washington, although sold at public auction yesterday afternoon, will remain in the English family. The property was bought by Mrs. Eleanor E. Rixey, a daughter of the late Admiral, and wife of Surgeon General Rixey, of the navy. The purchase price was $21,500.

If the plans of Mrs. Charles F. Joy, wife of the former St. Louis Congressman, are carried out, a $1,000,000 university, of which the object will be the study of occult and psychic phenomena, the human soul, and the sciences of the "new thought," not recognized by established schools, will be built overlooking the Pacific near Santa Barbara, Cal.

U. S. Grant Rhodes, aged 19 years, died Wednesday night at the home of his grandfather, Samuel Rhodes, at Middleburg, near Hagerstown, Md. Excessive cigarette smoking was the primary cause of his death. Two weeks ago he attended the Hagerstown fair, and although very weak, he seemed to enjoy the various attractions as much as anyone. On that occasion he remarked to several companions that he would be ready for his grave in two weeks.

Sharp advances in the price of wheat occurred in Chicago yesterday, the May delivery at one time being up 24 cents, compared with Wednesday's closing quotations. The December option showed a gain of 18 cents. The market closed practically at the highest point of the day, final quotations on May being at 91 1/4 to 91 3/4 cents. December closed at 89 1/4 cents. The labor crisis in Russia, foreshadowing a possible stoppage of all shipments of grain from that country, was the cause of the sensational rise in values.

Mr. Gorman's Speech.

In the courthouse at Elliptic City, Md., and in the presence of a crowd of Howard county democrats, among whom were scores of his old-time friends and many ladies, Senator Gorman made yesterday afternoon his first speech in this campaign.

As the recognized leader of the democratic party in Maryland and the foremost advocate of the suffrage amendment, as well as a main target for the attacks of the opposition, his first public utterance since the passage of the measure by the legislature was looked forward to with even more than the usual interest that attaches to him.

Straight from the shoulder was his defense of the principle of negro disfranchisement and the measure which the party has proposed for its accomplishment in Maryland.

He assigned the republican party, its leaders and its policy toward the negro, as a voter from the adoption of the Fifteenth amendment by one vote in a republican caucus to the present time. Graphically and with fire he described the steps taken in forcing negro suffrage upon the southern States, and in recent years the steps taken by first one and then another of these States to rid themselves of the negro as a political factor, until Maryland is the only one below the Mason and Dixon line which has not done so.

While he dealt strongly with the men who are fighting the amendment, nowhere in his speech did he mention the name of Senator Rayner, nor did he directly refer to him in any way. The deliberate ignoring of the junior Senator, his attitude toward the amendment, his attack upon the organization and his personal challenge to Mr. Gorman is in line, it is said, with the policy of the senior Senator not to notice anything Mr. Rayner may have to say.

It was to Mr. Bonaparte, as the new republican leader, however, that Senator Gorman paid more attention, and characterized him as a "common scold" brought forth a shout. He declared that practically all of the prominence Mr. Bonaparte had acquired had been gained through his advocacy of civil service reform. Mr. Bonaparte had pursued it, he said, to such a point that no mechanic may now get a place in the government service unless he passes a civil service examination, and a scrub woman may not find employment at the navy yard without a similar examination. Now, mark the contrast, said Mr. Gorman. "This leader, who would compel a scrub woman, no matter how badly she needed it, to pass a civil-service examination, yet stands before the people of Maryland and tells us that he is in favor of permitting the most ignorant negro from South Carolina to become a voter and a peer of yours and mine. Shame, shame to such Americanism! Shame upon the man who slanders his fellow-citizens as he has!" The Senator expressed his "complete regret" that Governor Warfield is against the amendment, and said: "I think he has been misled by bad advice."

TELEGRAPHIC BRIEVITIES.

A fire the loss by which will approximate $50,000 started at noon today in the hat forming mill of Willgerode & Company of Essex avenue, Orange, N. J.

Virginia News.

All the testimony in the case of John Richards, on trial for the murder of Francis Courthouse for the murder of Maurice Francis, is in and arguments will begin today. The last witnesses were heard yesterday and the entire afternoon was taken up in arguing instructions.

A fierce storm raged all yesterday along the Virginia part of the Atlantic coast, and last night the wind attained a velocity of 53 miles an hour off Cape Henry. A very high sea was running. All the lower part of Norfolk was flooded, and the street-car traffic has been tied up in many sections of the city.

The Virginia Colored Debt, Dumb and Blind Institute, for which Rev. W. T. Johnson, colored, has been industriously working, aided many white citizens, was chartered by the Corporation Commission yesterday. Johnson is president, E. W. Brown, vice-president, Giles B. Jackson secretary and A. W. Holmes treasurer.

The bids for State printing were opened in Richmond yesterday afternoon by Public Printer David Bottoms. All the bids were by local firms except one. Under the prices offered the State printing would cost about twice what it has done in former years. Mr. Bottoms deemed the bids all to high and rejected them all.

The Women's Missionary Union of the Synod of Virginia met in Grace Street Presbyterian Church in Richmond yesterday. Mrs. J. Calvin Stewart presided. Three sessions were held and the meeting adjourned last night. Rev. Dr. Jere Witherspoon opened the meeting with prayer, and Mrs. J. P. Smith made the address of welcome. The one hundred and eighteenth annual session of the Virginia Synod opened at 8 o'clock last night in the Second Presbyterian Church with a large attendance. The opening sermon was preached by the retiring moderator, Rev. Dr. E. B. McCluer, of Norfolk.

CONFEDERATE REUNION.

As stated in the Gazette of that day the programme for the Confederate reunion at Petersburg was marred by rain yesterday necessitating the omission of the two principal features—the parade and the reproduction of the Battle of the Crater. The grand camp held no regular session, but the Virginia Division of the United Confederate Veterans held its annual session, Judge T. C. Bennett, of Norfolk, making the address of welcome. General Garnett's annual report was a review of the past year's work of the organizations of veterans. The old officers were re-elected.

The dividing of the Third Brigade of the Virginia Division, thus creating a Fourth Brigade, was the feature of the meeting. Under the new arrangement all territory north of Harrisonburg in the Valley and north of Culpeper constitutes the third brigade, to be commanded by R. D. Funkhauser, while all territory south of these points becomes the Fourth Brigade, to be commanded by George S. Bernard, of Staunton, commanding.

The Veterans of Gen. William Mahone's Brigade, which made the famous charge at the Crater, July 30, 1864, repulsing the federal assault, held a reunion in the morning, comparatively few answering the roll-call of the Crater Legion, which is formed of the participants in the battle. Col. Edward M. Field, of Petersburg, the present ranking officer of Mahone's Brigade, called the meeting to order and then yielded to Col. William H. Stewart, of Portsmouth, commander of the Crater Legion, who presided. George S. Bernard, of A. P. Hill Camp, Petersburg, made the address of welcome to his old comrades, to which Colonel Stewart responded.

Col. W. H. Stewart was unanimously re-elected chief of the legion. The appearance of Mrs. General Mahone, who was introduced by Colonel Stewart, aroused the soldiers of her husband's famous command to great enthusiasm, the subsequent introduction of her daughter, Mrs. Otella Mahone McGill, and Mrs. James McGill, daughter of Gen. A. P. Hill, receiving like ovations. After roll-call and presentation of medals to survivors of the Crater charge Colonel Stewart made a stirring address to the veterans.

At a big meeting of Virginia Division, United Sons of Confederate Veterans, in the evening, presided over by Commander E. Lee Trinkle, of Wytheville, Rev. J. Gray McAllister, of Haden-Sidney, made the principal address. Rev. Dr. J. A. Foster welcomed the sons, for whom Aylette Ashby, of Newport News, responded. John B. Lightfoot, of Richmond, adjutant of the division, made the address presenting the sponsors and maid of honor, and Aubrey E. Strode, of Lynchburg, responded. At a meeting of the old "Stonewall Brigade" the following officers were elected: President, Capt. J. H. Morton, of Staunton; vice president, Capt. J. M. McFarland, of Hagerstown; chaplain, Rev. Dr. D. Blair; secretary, Thomas S. Woodward, of Staunton. It is proposed by the brigade to erect a stone marker on the battlefield of Manassas to commemorate the capture of Rickett's Battery of six pieces.

Struck by Stray Bullet.

Leila Wheeler, wife of Mr. F. F. Wheeler, formerly of Danbury, Conn., was struck late yesterday afternoon as she sat at the foot of the steps leading from her stoop in Savannah, Ga., by a wild bullet from the pistol of E. A. Moore, a drunken street car conductor. Shaken in five minutes, still in a drunken rage, Moore continued to attack C. R. Seckinger, who had offended him, and fired two more shots at him. The last took effect in Mr. Seckinger's left leg, passing through it above the knee. Seckinger and Moore quarreled in a car. Moore pulled his revolver and began shooting promiscuously. Mrs. Wheeler was across the street on her stoop when the stray bullet struck her in the neck.

Today's Telegraphic News.

Death of Prof. Vater. [Special Dispatch to the Alexandria Gazette.] Richmond, Va., Oct. 27.—Prof. O. E. Vater, president of the Miller Manual Labor School, in Albemarle county, died this morning of Bright's disease. He was over 60 years old and well known all over the State.

Governor Montague returned from New York today delighted with his trip, but he does not indicate his future plans.

The Strikes in Russia. St. Petersburg, Oct. 27.—The night passed quietly with mounted Cossacks patrolling the streets. The government is holding a large force of troops in readiness to march across the bridges into the quarters of the workmen, on Basil Island, in the event of trouble being started there.

The warning was issued yesterday by General Trepoft, Assistant Minister of the Interior, that the troops will fire upon strikers with ball cartridges if they begin rioting has had the effect of sobering the populace to a great extent.

General opinion today bears out the prediction made yesterday in these dispatches that there will be no general uprising on the strikers.

General Trepoft apparently has the situation well in hand and his known intention to meet rioting with lead is the best guarantee that there will be no repetition of the bloodshed of January.

Quiet reigns this morning, and a number of shops which were closed yesterday are open for business.

There is no confirmation here of the rumors that there has been a mutiny on any warship, or of the report received by telegram from Samara to the effect that the troops at that point had opened fire on the strikers.

News that the strike is spreading in many directions has been received today. A dispatch from Krasnojarsk, Siberia, states that the men on the Siberian Railway have joined the movement. They were expected to return to work on Tuesday, however. The men at Slavotak struck yesterday and all communication with the town is cut off today.

A newspaper strike is one of the latest developments of the situation. Several of the newspapers have been forced to suspend publication on account of the refusal of their compositors to work, and it is expected that by tomorrow all the papers will be in the grip of the strikers. This strike started last night when compositors on the Novosti, Nasazhizn, Synn Otestva struck. Today the compositors on the Russ, Biracheva and Vedomosti refused to set up the evening editions of these papers. It is not likely that any of the papers will be able to appear tomorrow.

The chemists, doctors, and lawyers belonging to professional unions, will strike tomorrow, and will remain inactive until a constitutional assembly is summoned. At Lodi, the employees of the factory tramways and the suburban railways have joined the strike.

Reports from Moscow say that the water supply which was interfered with by the strikers several days ago, has been cut off.

Reports from other points throughout the provinces show that the situation throughout the empire is very grave. So far, however, quiet has been maintained here.

No official figures on the subject are obtainable. Unofficial estimates place the number at 1,000,000, and the extent of the strike movement can be appreciated from these figures. Warsaw, Poland, Oct. 27.—The strike is still in progress here, and additions to the ranks of the strikers are made constantly. Today all the factories, many of the banks, the insurance exchange, and many other offices are closed. The strike has assumed a purely political aspect and the working men who have left their positions are insisting that their demands for reforms shall be complied with. The authorities hope to prevent the transmission of private telegrams from St. Petersburg and Moscow. The police are reported to have already found a number of Armenian bombs, packed in boxes, which were intended for use in Smyrna and Constantinople and Salonika.

Vienna, Oct. 27.—A telegram from Warsaw, which reached here by way of Lemberg, says that strikers set fire to the Warsaw railway station. The firemen refused to make any effort to check the flames until soldiers compelled them, at the point of the bayonet, to work the fire engines.

London, Oct. 27.—The news from Russia is upsetting the markets. Russian bonds have suffered a further decline of 1 1/2 points. Many international stocks have fallen from 1/2 to 4 points. Samara, Russia, Oct. 27.—Fighting between the people and the soldiers occurred here today. The people attempted to prevent the troops from operating the guns, and troops were called out. The people stood their ground against the soldiers, who charged upon them, using the butt ends of their guns on the crowd. Over twenty persons were wounded.

Fire. New York, Oct. 27.—The eight story building, 20-22 Desbrosses street, occupied on the first and second floors by the California Consolidated Vineyard Company; on the third by the Dexter Frank Caramel Company; and on the four upper floors by the Kurdmur Wax and Paper Company, and the Thompson Pettie Candy Company, was destroyed by fire today. The loss will probably reach $300,000. The origin of the fire is not known.

San Francisco, Oct. 27.—Fire is raging in a new cannery building at Bay and Nelson streets, which threatens to destroy the entire plant. It is reported a large shed collapsed burying some of the firemen. The burning structure is owned and operated by Central Canneries Company.

Some Seasonable Advice. It may be a piece of superfluous advice to urge people at this season of the year to lay in a supply of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is almost sure to be needed before winter is over, and much more prompt and satisfactory results are obtained when taken as soon as a cold is contracted and before it has become settled in the system, which can only be done by keeping the remedy at hand.

This remedy is so widely known and so altogether good that no one should hesitate about buying it in preference to any other. It is for sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

Wards Off Pneumonia. All coughs, colds and pulmonary complaints that are curable are quickly cured by One Minute Cough Cure. Cures the phlegm, stops inflammation and heals and soothes the affected part strengthens the lungs, wards off pneumonia. Harmless and pleasant to take. Sold by W. F. Creighton, and Co., 401 King street.

President's Steamer in Collision. New Orleans, Oct. 27.—The light-house tender Magnolia, with President Roosevelt on board, was in collision with the fruit steamer Esparta, near Nairn, La., shortly after midnight.

The news reached New Orleans through a long distance message from Captain M. W. Rose, of the Esparta, who asked that assistance be sent him. Rose reported both vessels aground at the river bank, and said that the Esparta would probably have to carry the President's party to the mouth of the river, where the cruiser West Virginia was awaiting them. From this it is inferred that the Magnolia is badly damaged. Rose said no one was seriously injured in the collision.

It is said in one of the dispatches one of the crew of the Magnolia was knocked from his bunk by the collision and that one of his legs was broken.

The tug R. W. Wilmot and D. B. Woods left New Orleans shortly after four o'clock this morning for the scene of the accident. Nairn is about 60 miles below New Orleans on the west bank of the Mississippi river. The Esparta belongs to the fleet of the United Fruit Company, and was on her way to New Orleans with a cargo of bananas, etc.

One of the tugs that went to Nairn will probably convey the President and his party to the West Virginia outside the Pass, while the other gives her attention to the Esparta to prevent the loss of her cargo.

Efforts to communicate with Nairn by telephone late this morning were futile.

A telephone dispatch from Empire, La., just below Nairn and 60 miles below the city by the river, was received at 8:15 this morning, saying that the Magnolia passed there at 2:30 this morning. The right time for her to pass, if there had been no interruption, would have been midnight. This news came from the telephone operator.

A later dispatch says that a large hole was stove in the Magnolia's port bow. Both boats immediately beached on the Batture.

A telephone message was received here at 8:20 by Traffic Manager Dempsey, of the United Fruit Company, from Pilot Town, saying that the revenue cutter Ivy had come up from Port Eads to Nairn and taken the President off the disabled Magnolia, and proceeded on down the river.

At 8:45 a telephone message was received by the Publishers' Press from the telephone operator, at Pilot Town, at the Pass, saying: "At one o'clock last night I received a message from Sixty-mile Point, which is Nairn, from Major Craighead, ordering the revenue cutter Ivy to return to Nairn at all possible speed. That was all the message said. This morning I learned that the steamer Esparta had collided with the Magnolia. The Ivy passed Pilot Town at 8:15 o'clock this morning. It will take her an hour and a half to reach the West Virginia, which lies out in the gulf, a mile from the head of the Gulf Pass. We have heard of no one being hurt on board the Magnolia or Esparta."

New Orleans, Oct. 27.—A telephone message received by the Publishers' Press at 9:45 o'clock from the Pilot Town operator says the President boarded the West Virginia at 9:07 o'clock and the vessel after firing a salute of 21 guns immediately weighed anchor and steamed away.

Mr. Cleveland.

Chicago, Oct. 27.—Former President Grover Cleveland arrived in Chicago this morning on his way to Nebraska City to attend the dedication of the J. Sterling Morton monument. He was accompanied by Mrs. Cleveland, Mr. and Mrs. Adlai Stevenson, Paul Morton, Miss Pauline Morton and Master Wirt Morton. He will resume his journey westward this afternoon attended by a large party including men of national prominence and most of their families from Chicago and elsewhere. The former President will spend the night quickly taking a drive about the city and it is expected that he may visit the stock yards and the horse show. Mr. Cleveland wired that he would not be the guest of the Froquois club at luncheon. He is an honorary member of the club.

Ten Men Drowned.

Hamburg, Germany, Oct. 27.—The crew of the Spanish vessel which was wrecked this morning off Heligoland refused to board a life boat. At daylight the ship broke up and ten men were drowned.

Mysterious Poisoning.

Philadelphia, Oct. 27.—Local detectives assisted by the Pennsylvania Railroad authorities are investigating the alleged poisoning of a well dressed young man, supposed to be James Suedaker, who was found dead last night on a railroad train, which arrived at Broad street station about midnight. The victim was taken to the Jefferson Medical Hospital, where it is said his condition has improved, but is still serious. Considerable mystery surrounds the case. It is said the young man was put aboard the railroad train at Wilmington, Del., by a well dressed man and woman, who assisted him in mounting the steps of the car, and said that he was safely seated. The couple then hurried out of the station, and were seen to board a trolley car. According to the physicians Suedaker, or whoever the young man may be, was suffering from poisoning, and it is thought that he had been given knock out drops and then robbed. The young man's pockets were empty and a mark was made on his finger, showed that he had recently worn a heavy ring.

Macedonian Finances.

Constantinople, Oct. 27.—Owing to the uncompromising attitude assumed by Porte on the question of international control of Macedonian finances, the French representative here and the five other great powers interested in the subject have requested a collective audience of the Sultan when they will jointly make their last representations in the matter. They will insist upon the necessity for this scheme of financial control being put in operation. This move is regarded as the last diplomatic step to be taken. In the event of the failure of the representatives of the powers to move the Sultan to accept of this scheme, measures will be taken to force Turkey to agree to the scheme.

Refuses to Approve Candidature.

Christiania, Norway, Oct. 27.—A letter addressed to the Storting has been received from King Oscar, of Sweden, and will be published this evening. It is understood that the letter contains the formal answer of King Oscar, refusing to approve of the candidature of a prince of the house of Bernadotte, for the Norwegian throne, and his farewell proclamation to Norway on the dissolution of the union with Sweden.

Cheated Death.

Kidney trouble often ends fatally, but by choosing the right medicine, E. H. Wolff, of Bear Grove, Iowa, cheated death. He says: "Two years ago I had Kidney Trouble, which caused me great pain, suffering and anxiety, but I took Electric Bitters, which effected a complete cure. I have since found them of great benefit in general debility and nerve trouble, and kept them constantly on hand, since, as I find they have no equal." E. H. Wolff, of Bear Grove, Iowa, writes: "I have used them at 50c."

The Market.

Georgetown, Oct. 27.—Wheat 50c.

New York Politics. New York, Oct. 27.—The features of the political situation in this city today and one that is being discussed generally in the letter of former President Grover Cleveland, to Mayor McCallan, in which he warned against the "rank hysteria," manifested in some quarters. He also spoke of the advantage which was being taken of the usually aroused prejudices for demagogic manipulation to mislead the public and pointed dangers which Mayor McCallan's course was calculated to avert.

An important step was taken by the republican executive committee today. They issued a call for the convention to meet in Murray Hill Lyceum tonight and nominate Mr. Jerome for District Attorney in place of Judge Charles A. Flammer, the republican nominee, who withdrew from the ticket on Wednesday. This action will be taken in apparent defiance of the election law, which state that vacancies on the ticket must be filled not later than October 23.

All the candidates for Mayor, also Mr. Jerome, made a number of addresses last night. Mayor McCallan spoke on the east side of this city, and then made a dash through Brooklyn. Mr. Hearst was also in Brooklyn, where he made four speeches. Mr. Ives, after addressing a large gathering on the east side, crossed the bridge and spoke four times in Kings county. Mr. Jerome made only one address and that was in the Bohemian National Hall, in east 73rd street.

The new ferry steamer Woodbury, built at Wilmington, Del., for the Norfolk and Washington Steamboat Company, will leave Wilmington tomorrow morning and is expected to pass this city on her way to Washington some time next Sunday evening. She will make an excursion trip down the river Monday morning, leaving Washington at 11 o'clock and this city half an hour later. A number of invitations have been sent to officials, business men, newspaper men and others, and all are looking forward with pleasure to the trip.

The need of ferry communication between Alexandria and Washington has been seriously felt ever since the closing of the line by the burning of the old steamer Columbia, and the re-establishment of a line is looked upon with pleasure by the entire community.

The history of ferries between Alexandria and Maryland and Washington runs back to the nucleus of this city. In May, 1740, a ferry was established from Hunting creek warehouse to Frazier's Point, in Maryland. One billiard was charged to transport a man, woman or horse across the Potomac. Hunting creek warehouse was the forerunner of Belle Haven and Alexandria evolved from the latter. In October 1748, a ferry was established from the plantation of George Mason to Rock Creek, Md., and the fare prescribed was four pence. George Mason owned what is now called Anacostia Island with adjoining land on the Virginia side.

There appears to have been a ferry line between Alexandria and Washington when the latter was only a collection of hamlets containing unfinished public buildings and dwellings. A ferry between Alexandria and Greenleaf's Point (now the arsenal grounds) existed in 1798. This was probably the first ferry line that gave direct communication between this city and Washington.

Since that time the ferry line had been in operation almost constantly up to the partial destruction of the steamer Columbia, May 13, 1903. For nearly a century sailing vessels and horse boats were used in the ferry service, and when steamboats made their appearance they were of a crude type and made generally but one trip a day. As the era of steam advanced more satisfactory steamers were placed on the ferry route, among them the Phoenix and Joseph Johnson. Many now living remember the rivalry carried on half a century ago by the owners of rival ferry steamers. At that time one boat ran from the foot of Queen street, The George Washington, Thomas Collier, Union and George Page, the two double-enders, were the boats of those days. Subsequently the Page and Collier had the route to themselves and kept the line open up to the outbreak of the civil war. A ferry slip was then built on the strand, on the ground now occupied by the lot between King and Prince streets, and double-end steamers, brought here from New York, ran on the route. There was a rival steamer, known as the Young America, that arrived at and departed from the foot of King street. The fare on the latter was five cents, and sometimes the double-end steamers transported passengers gratis in attempts to force the Young America off the line.

Mahood, in Lynchburg, died Wednesday evening of a complication of diseases. She is survived by six children, all of whom reside in Lynchburg, except Mr. M. E. Gilman Chewning, of Washington. She was a member of the Baptist Church of this city and was 46 years old. Her husband was killed in this city several years ago by jumping from a moving train.

Captain of Pungy Killed.

According to reports received from the lower river, Capt. Alex. Harris, of the pungy Capt. Vickers, was shot and killed yesterday morning by the mate of an oyster police boat. A message from the telephone operator at Choptank, near Charlotte Hall, gave the information that Captain Harris had been killed by Mate Douglas Russell, of the police schooner Bessie Jones, and that the captain had been shot while on his vessel in the Potomac river. Captain Alexander Harris lived at Cambridge, Md. His remains were forwarded to Washington yesterday on one of the Potomac river steamers. No details of the shooting have been received.

St. Asaph Pool Room.

The report circulated in Washington yesterday to the effect that the old St. Asaph pool room was to be reopened within the next ten days was erroneous. It may never be reopened unless sanctioned by a Virginia statute, the adoption of which is unlikely to occur. The denial is made by Mr. Lew Bagen, who says he knows positively that Mr. Hill does not contemplate opening the St. Asaph poolroom, nor does he intend to back any other establishment of that character in the jurisdiction of Virginia.

The Manassas Branch.

It is said in railroad circles that extensive improvements are contemplated to the Manassas Branch of the Southern Railway. President Spencer passed through this city this morning on a tour of inspection. It is again rumored that the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad is to run most of its freight trains over the Manassas Branch to Alexandria. The trains, it is said, will run over the Shenandoah Valley Branch of the Norfolk and Western to Riverton, where they will be transferred to the Manassas road. Some say the latter is to be double-tracked, while others state that the Southern Railway Company is making preparations to lay heavy rails, strengthen the road bed and put in new iron bridges in order to meet the additional demands upon the road. Some suggest that a movement may be on foot to make a coal depot somewhere near Alexandria. These are practically the same rumors that were in circulation some months ago, but were then denied by the Southern officials who said that the heavy grades on the Manassas branch and the longer distance by that route would preclude any such arrangement.

The Arnold Stock Company.

A good-sized audience last night witnessed the presentation of "The New York Mystery" by the Arnold Stock Company at the Opera House. This melodrama proved to be one of the best pieces the company has produced this week and was thoroughly enjoyed. Several sets of special scenery were used during the performance, notably among them being the old mill on the Hudson river. Louis Alumnais had the comedy role of Jasper Jessop and caused many a hearty laugh during his "love scene" with Kitty (Miss Lee Glover). Those deserving special mention were W. W. Shuttleworth, Clyde Franklin, Miss Musa Beal, Miss Pauline Seymour and last, but not least by any means, little Sadie Wheeler. The specialties were again very enjoyable, especially that of Peter Don. Tonight the Arnold company will present Oscar Wilde's famous comedy, "Lady Windermere's Fan," one of the best comedies on the stage today. This is a strictly comedy in every sense and those wishing a hearty laugh should see it. Special scenery will be used for each act and the stage costumes are said to be the prettiest of the week. For the convenience of the children a matinee will be given tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

On Wednesday evening the President entertained his party at dinner on the "Signal." Reference was made to another term. "There will not be any next term for me," he said with emphasis. "I am now serving my last." "But suppose that you are nominated anyway?" "I will not be nominated," he exclaimed.
